

Giving Kosovo 2022

REPORT ON THE STATE OF PHILANTHROPY

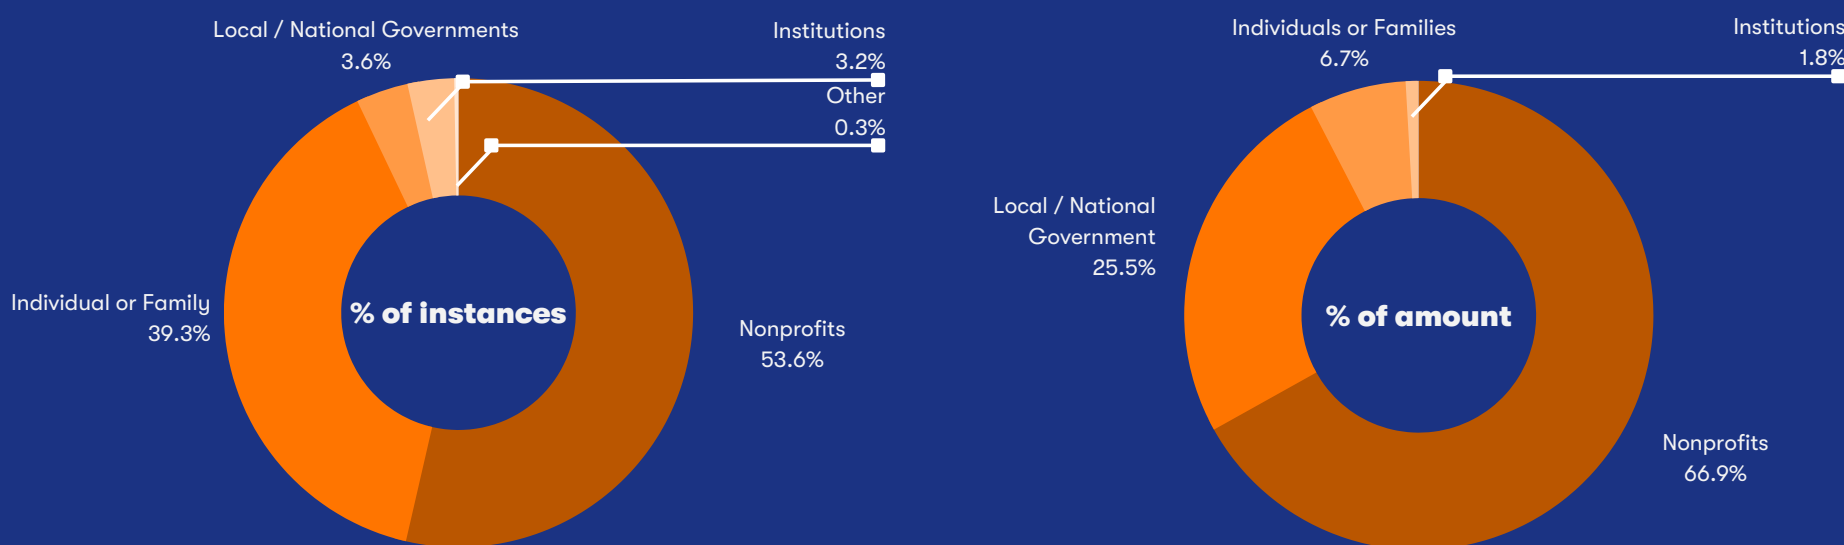

WHO GETS THE SUPPORT?

In 2022, Kosovo saw a shift in philanthropy, with majority donations going to nonprofits (53.6%), while direct giving to individuals/families dropped to 39.5%. Government/institutions received 3.2%, including a significant portion for the Security Fund.

Recipient Trends 2018 – 2022

Recipients in Kosovo 2022

Nonprofits led recipient trends, with 53.6% of donations; domestic associations were the most frequent recipients within this category.

Direct giving to individuals and families still made up 39.5% of donations, showing continued support for personal needs.

Giving to government and institutions declined, but the Security Fund received substantial backing, comprising nearly 25% of the total recorded amount.

Source: givingbalkans.org/kosovo_en

This infographic is made possible by the generous support of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The contents are the responsibility of Catalyst Balkans and do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government.

The Citizen Engagement Activity in Kosovo is a five-year initiative implemented by Kosovar Civil Society Foundation (KCSF) in partnership with the United States Agency for International Development (USAID).